Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

All Board members and key employees are asked to review and sign a copy of FONAs conflict of interest policy annually.

If a potential or actual conflict of interest arises, any conflicted individual is provided an opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Executive Committee or governance body assigned with investigating the conflict. The individual does not participate in the resulting decision-making deliberations.

After receiving information about an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Executive Committee or other assigned governance body has their responsibility to exercise due diligence to determine whether FONAs can obtain, with reasonable efforts, a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If not, the Executive Committee or governance body determines by a majority vote whether any related transaction or arrangement is in FONAs best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable.
