Washington Youth Garden: FONA staff manage the historic Washington Youth Garden on the grounds of the U.S. National Arboretum, to provide hands on connections to nature for arboretum visitors and more than 1,500 schoolchildren on field trips. The Summer Institute for Garden-Based Teaching prepared nearly 40 teachers to take these learning opportunities back to their classroom in DC schools, as part of the School Garden Support Program, which also offered direct support in classrooms and school gardens. More than 5,000 pounds of produce from the garden were shared with food insecure community members. The Green Ambassadors Program offers internships to high school students. The Garden Fair and Plant Sale offered an opportunity for community members to purchase plants and learn to create their own gardens.

01. Form 990 governing body review (Part VI, line 11)

The Form 990 is completed by the outside accountants with the involvement of the Executive Director and the accountant. After the draft is reviewed by the Executive Director and accountant, it is presented to and reviewed by the Finance Committee of the Board, which can approve the Form on behalf of the Board, or require further adjustments to the Form before formally accepting the Form for submission to the IRS. Before filing, a copy of the 990 is reviewed by the entire Board of Directors.

02. Conflict of interest policy compliance (Part VI, line 12c)

All Board members are asked to review and sign a copy of FONA’s conflict of interest policy at the beginning of their term of board service and when reelected. Key employees review and sign the policy annually.

If a potential or actual conflict of interest arises, any conflicted individual is provided an opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Executive Committee or governance body assigned with investigating the conflict. The individual does not participate in the resulting decision-making deliberations.
After receiving information about an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Executive Committee or other assigned governance body has the responsibility to exercise due diligence to determine whether FONA can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If not, the Executive Committee or governance body determines by a majority vote whether any related transaction or arrangement is in FONA's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable.
A written record of the proceedings that identifies the person(s) with the potential or actual conflict of interest, the nature of the conflict itself, the names of the members of the committee present for deliberations, and the date(s) and nature of the discussion and resolution(s) are kept. This record is included in the minutes of the next meeting of the Executive Committee or Board of Directors.

03. CEO, executive director, top management comp (Part VI, line 15a)

The Executive Director is subject to an annual review by the Board Chair on behalf of the Board. The Board Chair presents the performance review to the full Board in executive session, and incorporates any comments from the board in the final review. Any adjustments in compensation are presented and established in the executive session. The Board Chair reviews performance with the Executive Director orally and in writing.

04. Governing documents, etc., available to public (Part VI, line 19)

FONA's governing documents and conflict of interest policy are provided by the Executive Director upon request. FONA's audited financial statements, tax return and related documents are posted on its website, www.fona.org, as well as made available on request.

05. Not undergone required audits or steps for audit (Part XII, line 3b)

FONA's Finance Committee is responsible for oversight of the audit, including selection of the independent accountant. This process has not changed from previous years.
